PRIZEWINNER Jeff Schwartz, takes his new Thunderbird, Jr. in stride as he displays it to his parents and sister in Oscar Maples showroom. The $425 Thunderbird, Jr. was won by the boy in a drawing conducted by the Torrance Ford dealer. The car, driven by an electric motor set at a controlled speed of five miles per hour, has an all steel welded chassis, puncture proof tires, vinyl upholstery and other features found in its larger counterpart. Admiring the prize car are Dwight Eubank, sales representative for Oscar Maples; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwartz, of 5213 Via El Sereno, and Leslee Schwartz.

Atty. General GOP Speaker

U. S. Attorney General William P. Rogers will come to Los Angeles on January 20 to address the United Republican Dinner at the Palladium, it was announced by Daniel P. Bryant, president of Bekins Van & Storage Co. and Chairman of the $100-a-plate banquet.

The fund-raising event, one

Attorney General Brown and Judge Mosk were unopposed in their bids for endorsement.

While all other candidates were contested, in each case the loser pledged all out support for the winner. Major interest centered around the race for U. S. Senate endorsement between Northern California Congressman Clair Engle and Professor Peter Odegard of Berkeley.

The convention named Alan Cranston, Los Altos businessman and former C.D.C. President as their candidate for the office of Controller. Glenn Anderson, Los Angeles builder was endorsed for the Lieutenant Governorship.

Bert Betts, San Diego C.P.A., and Henry Lopez, Los Angeles Attorney, were the group's selections for the posts of Treasurer and Secretary of State.

The convention was presided over by Joseph L. Wyatt, new president of the California Democratic Council.

REPRESENTATIVES A10: Ken Friess, Bill Halver-son. B11: Ron Rogers. A11: Charles Flanary, John Plant. B12 Jack Patton. A12: Jim Allen, Jim Jones.

of more than 50 simultaneous dinners to be given throughout the United States on the same evening, will also feature televised talks by both President Eisenhower and Vice-President Nixon presented to the assembled guests by means of a gigantic TV screen.

Altogether more than 2000 Republican party members are expected to attend, with reservations for the dinner already exceeding all expectations. "The response to the invitations," Bryant stated, "is a gratifying indication of the renewed strength, enthusiasm and optimism with which the Republicans of Southern California are facing the 1958 election campaign."
